

Learn the Grammar

Tony and Sue are on their way home from school.

People throw away too much rubbish. They ought to use fewer foam boxes.

They ought to recycle bottles and cans, too.

Expressing Obligation: ought to

We use 'ought to' to say what is the right thing to do. We do not change the verb form after 'ought to'.

We	ought to	recycle	bottles and cans.
		reuse	plastic bags.

Talking about Quantity: too many / too much

We use 'too many' and 'too much' to show that the amount of something is more than needed.

We use 'too many' with countable nouns and 'too much' with uncountable nouns.

People throw away	too	many	foam boxes.
		much	rubbish.

Talking about Quantity: fewer/less

We use 'fewer' and 'less' to talk about a smaller amount.

We use 'fewer' with countable nouns and 'less' with uncountable nouns.

People ought to use	fewer	foam boxes.
	less	paper.

ought to

Tony's family and their neighbours are having a meeting to talk about environmental protection. Complete what they say with the words in the box.

donate them to people in need put them in the recycling bins use public transport more often put their rubbish in the bins turn them off after use

- 1  : Some neighbours turn on their air conditioners even when the weather is cool. They ought to open the windows instead.
- 2  : Some neighbours drive their cars to work every day. They ought to use public transport more often.
- 3  : Some neighbours leave their lights on all night. They ought to turn them off after use.
- 4  : Some neighbours litter the staircase. They ought to put their rubbish in the bins.
- 5  : Some neighbours throw away their old clothes. They ought to donate them to people in need.
- 6  : Some neighbours throw away used plastic bottles. They ought to put them in the recycling bins.

too many / too much

Tony is reading a short article about some problems in our environment. Complete the article with the words in the box.

cars	electricity	forests	lights	paper
plastic bags	smoke	trees	water

There is 1. too much rubbish in our city. Restaurants and fast food shops use 2. too many foam boxes to pack takeaways. Some people use 3. too many plastic bags when they go shopping.

There are 4. too many cars on the roads. They give out 5. too much smoke, which makes the air dirty.

People use 6. too much electricity. They turn on their air conditioners in winter and do not switch off their computers even when they are not in use. People use 7. too many lights to decorate their shops and offices.

We cut down 8. too many trees because we use 9. too much paper. As a result, we are destroying 10. too many forests. Now, many animals do not have a proper place to live.

People use 11. too much water. They ought to turn the tap off when brushing their teeth.

fewer/less

Sue is making a poster about environmental protection. Complete the poster with the correct form of the words in the box.

card

foam box

paper

plastic bag

tissue

water
